Emma Lozano

Pastor Emma Lozano is a dedicated Board Member of the Chicago Board of Education, renowned for her advocacy against overcrowding in public schools and her steadfast support for bilingual education. Her grassroots efforts have been instrumental in affecting positive change in the Chicago Public Schools system, highlighting the educational needs of underrepresented families.

Pastor Lozano's commitment to improving educational opportunities directly contributed to the establishment of the Rudy Lozano School. She has also played a significant role in the fight for undocumented immigrant parents, advocating for their right to vote and run for Local School Council positions.

Nationally, Pastor Lozano is a leader in the immigrant rights movement, working tirelessly to secure legal protections for the approximately 11 million undocumented individuals living in the United States. Her advocacy combines her faith, community engagement and relentless pursuit of justice, making her a powerful voice for change in the education sector and beyond. Through her work, she continues to inspire hope and resilience among the communities she serves.
